

To his Excellency the Governor and the Honourable Council

We the undersigned would respectfully represent to His Excellency the Governor and the Honourable Council that Jeremiah Peace of Edgartown in the County of Dukes County would be a suitable person to fill the Office of Guardian for the Indians and people of Colour on the Island of Chabaquidic within said County and that it is our opinion he is in all respects qualified to fill that station – We the subscribers do therefore respectfully solicit for him the appointment to that Office, and as in duty bound will ever pray.
